PRAY FOR THE GIFT OF KNOWLEDGE

The fifth gift is Knowledge. We might wonder what the difference is between wisdom, understanding and knowledge? Perhaps there's something trinitarian here, where the gifts are somehow substantially the same and yet somehow distinct in their relation and action. This makes sense, given that the three gifts are linked to the theological virtues: understanding to faith, knowledge to hope, and wisdom to love.

Wisdom brings the desire to value properly what we believe, ordering things by our love for God. Understanding, at once speculative and practical and yet more than mere intellectual ascent, brings certitude; it is to grasp the essence of the truths we believe. Finally, the Gift of Knowledge (as distinct from "head knowledge") fulfills and "carries out" the former gifts. Both Wisdom and Knowledge are considered 'the perfection of faith', but where Wisdom is the desire, and Understanding is the grasp, Knowledge is actually being able to do what we desire and grasp in faith – as well as in hope, and love. Knowledge sees life through God's eyes. In short, it puts into action what Wisdom and Understanding have made visible and within our reach.

Come, Holy Spirit, pour on us your gift of knowledge.
Having purified our faith with wisdom and understanding,
help us, everywhere and always, to serve you faithfully,
to put our faith into consistent, coherent, concrete action.
Amen.
