Did you know...

How Catholics use symbols?

We sometimes hear things like "The Eucharist is only a symbol." This presumes that if something is symbolic, it is therefore not real. This is not true. It is impossible to communicate anything in this life except by doing so symbolically (with words, gestures, and so on). We symbolise things that are real. Therefore, the symbols are real.

Think of the many symbols we employ in our Catholic rituals: water and the white garment in baptism, oils for anointing, lit candles, the the sign of the cross, genuflecting, and so on. In Catholic thought, a symbol does more than what a mere sign can. Signs inform (e.g. a stop sign says "Stop!"). Symbols participate in the reality they communicate. Silly as this may sound, if a stop sign were to reach out and stop us, the astute Catholic would say "Aha! That is no longer just a sign. It's now a symbol!" It does what it says.

In Baptism, the water says being washed, buried, reborn, the white garment says a new creations is "putting on" Christ. But then the water and the garment do what they say. A candle tells us of the light of Christ, and when we light it, we see it casting out darkness. Now the Eucharist is probably the most meaningful symbol that there is on earth. But like all true symbols, the true miracle is that it does what it says. Why else do we call this "the source and summit of the Christian life"?

Let the symbols of our faith speak to you, but more importantly, let them do what they say.

God bless, Fr Ashwin

MARIST LAITY GROUP

The Parish Marist Laity Group is meeting this Saturday (21 Oct) at the Parish office at 10am.

Members have been reading, reflecting on and discussing Pope Francis' encyclical letter Laudato si'. This letter is on care for our common home. So far, discussions have focussed on care of our environment. Discussions have reminded us of simple ways we can all care for our environment:

- Be water wise – 3 min showers, switch off water when cleaning teeth, choose waterwise plants for our gardens, recycle water where possible
- Recycle what and when we can – buy less clothes, recycle plastics, cardboard, paper, be creative in how to reuse what we already have rather than buying new, live simply
- Support those who seek to care for the environment, use less garden sprays,
- Buy goods that aren't packaged in plastics where possible, buy products that are not harmful to our environment, buy goods packaged in biodegradable wrapping or wrappings made from recycled products, buy local produce where possible.

As well as these discussions, we sometimes have other reflections that give us direction in our daily lives in trying to live in the way of Mary – think, feel and act as Mary would.

If you would like to join in with our reflections and discussions, please come along to our meetings, held on the third Saturday of every month, the next being Saturday 21st October. We look forward to welcoming some new faces.

Journey with Sr Carolina

THIS WORLD MISSION MONTH

catholicmission.org.au/carolina

With Timor-Leste's fragile infrastructure, reliance on local health practices, and limited access to medical care, many health conditions only worsen, and sadly can result in death.

Next week Catholic Mission will offer you the opportunity to partner with the Sr Carolina and the Salesian Sisters in Venilale, Timor-Leste, where your gift can help continue a life-saving program to help address this reality.

We hope you will take next week's opportunity to make an incredible impact for those in need.

the parish on painting costs! If you have your own paintbrush, please bring it along. And please contact our work foreman Buddy (0409 489 440) so we know how many helpers we will have. Refreshments will be provided! Thank you.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL RENEWAL

"I dream of a missionary option", that is, a missionary impulse capable of transforming everything, so that the Church's customs, ways of doing things, times and schedules, language and structures can be suitably channelled for the evangelisation of today's world rather than for her self-preservation."

Pope Francis, Evangelii Gaudium 27

From this weekend we invite you to recommend one or more parishioners for membership of our Pastoral Council. Members of the Council are appointed for two years, with an option to consider continuing for a further two years. Pastoral Councillors don't need to be experts in theology or administration, they just need to be people of faith who can:

- Listen to the voices and needs of people in the parish;
- Work collaboratively to discern God's will for our parish;
- Be a welcoming point of contact for others to bring ideas or concerns to. Those who are recommended will be invited to attend an information and discernment evening on 23 November. Those who accept nomination will join the Council at the beginning of 2024

ROSARY GROUP

You are invited to come and pray the rosary for members of our parish who are sick or in need of prayer.
