ON THE SUNDAY AND WEEKDAY LECTIONARIES

The lectionary is a gift in our liturgical worship. The liturgy of the word is not Bible study. If it were, our lectionaries would be like a syllabus beginning in Genesis and ending with Revelation. But there is nothing linear about the readings we encounter in the Mass. They jump back and forth and even seem to repeat themselves. They're not linear, but neither are they random, nor finally do they depend on the plans or whims of the preacher or the community. Instead, the Church has prayerfully organised the Word for proclamation when the eucharistic assembly gathers. The intention is not study but pilgrimage.

Two lectionaries guide this pilgrimage: the Sunday lectionary, and the Weekday lectionary. The Sunday lectionary follows a three-year cycle: Year A, where we currently are, presents Matthew's Gospel, Year B presents Mark's, and Year C presents Luke's - three rich portraits of the life of Jesus. There is no "Year D" for John's Gospel account, because specific portions of John feature in Years A, B, and C, such as during the seasons of Lent and Easter, and on certain feast days.

The Weekday lectionary follows a two-year cycle: Cycles I (for years ending with an odd number, such as 2023) and Cycle II. While they feature different readings from the Hebrew Scriptures (OT) and the Acts and Epistles (NT), the Gospel passages for Cycles I and II are the same. They feature a semi-continuous presentation of Mark, Matthew, and Luke, with the same seasonal presentation of John. I am often amazed at what readings the Church places before us. They never fail to deepen my relationship with God and all God's people, as we make our pilgrimage of faith together.

NEWS FROM BISHOP MICHAEL'S DIOCESAN SOCIAL JUSTICE GROUP.

This year Social Justice Sunday, 27th August, will focus on The Voice. Over coming weeks, in preparation, the Social Justice group will share some ideas from One Journey Together (<https://indigenousvoice.church/>), a website whose aim is to "educate and inform our fellow Catholics on the principles of Catholic Social Teaching CST)". To assist reflection, we are focusing on ideas from "CST's for the Journey", an article by Dr Rebekah Pryor, Caritas Australia, in partnership with NATSICC. This article connects CST with what is happening for our First Nations Peoples. The SJ group hopes that in sharing some of these thoughts you might reflect on them, and thus make a more informed decision on your vote in the upcoming referendum.

Question for reflection: How and where are you getting your information about "The Voice"? How are you preparing yourself to vote conscientiously?

RCIA INQUIRY EVENING

Do you know someone who might be interested in becoming a Catholic?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the Church's process of journeying with adults who would like to be baptised or enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.

There will be an inquiry evening in the parish hall for anyone who wants to know more about the process. There is no obligation to join – just a chance to find out more.

THANK YOU

Following the break-in at Star of the Sea Church, several parishioners have been very generous in helping with repairs. A big thank you to:

Ernie Nagy for repairing our tabernacle.

Lloyd "Buddy" Budd for repairing the doors to the sacristy and work room.

Adelina Ainsworth for financial contribution to the repairs.

Our parish is blessed to have people so generous with their time, talent and treasure!

+ First Holy Communion +

Congratulations to those sharing in Holy Communion for the first time this weekend.

We are blessed to have you join us in the Eucharist.
