Did you know...

About the Saints?

The Catholic Church recognises over 10,000 saints. It was not until the 17th century that Pope Urban VIII clarified that only the Holy See had the authority to canonize a saint. From that time on, requirements were gradually added to the canonization process regarding things such as local veneration and acclaimed miracles. Such processes are important to guarantee authenticity.

In our spiritual life, reading about the lives of the saints can help us understand and contextualise our own Christian journey. By learning and appreciating more about the lesser known saints recognised by the Catholic Church, we broaden and deepen our own insights into those who have gone before us and so contributed to the life, tradition and mission of the Church.

When a saint is considered a 'Patron Saint', this provides us with an opportunity to learn more about the attribute, cause, location, activity and how we too can, like the Patron Saint, enter into Christian dialogue with this aspect of the world.

Some Patron Saints of interest: Apprentices - St John Bosco;

Bricklayers - St Stephen;

Job seekers / unemployed – St. Cajetan;

Social Media / Computers – Bl Carlo Acutis;

Respiratory illnesses - St. Bernadine of Siena;

Fertility and Pregnancy – St. Gianna;

Cancer Patients - St. Peregrine Laziosi;

Diabetes - St. Pauline Visintainer;

Teachers - St. Katherine Drexel;

Fr Peter
